Several Humphries Families

In an attempt to connect Phebe with another Humphries family, I compiled info about 3 major Humphries families in Mississippi.

Family #1: (This family looks like the most likely candidate because of their involvment with the estate of Thomas Sutton - Daniel Osteen, Stephen Allen, and Richard Humphrey purchased items from the estate of Thomas Sutton. When Phebe died and left land to her children, Henry McDonald purchased all of it from them.)
Elizabeth McDonald Humphries Family (sources: Mildred Brady Venitucci, Melanie Nolan, and DeeDee ___ from RootsWeb.com) Elizabeth McDonald, d. in Jefferson Co., MS, married ____ Humphries. Children (I don't know their birth order): 1.John McDonald Humphries 2. Margaret Humphries married Daniel Osteen in Jefferson County, MS, on 4 August 1828. Margaret was born about 1810-1815. Daniel Osteen purchased items from the estate of Thomas Sutton (whose wife was Phebe Humphries, born in MS 1806, married Thomas in Jefferson Co. in Nov. 1820 - is she related to this family?) on January 5, 1831. 3. Richard Humphries (spelled Humphrey, also purchased items from the estate of Thomas Sutton), died in 1837. 4. David Humphries, married Elizabeth Allen. Known child: Elijah Jefferson Humphreys, b. 1825-1830 Jefferson Co. Elizabeth married second to Hampton Pennington. 5. Mariah Humphries married Stephen Allen in 1829 Jefferson County, MS (Stephen also purchased items from the estate of Thomas Sutton. William S. Allen officiated the marriage of Thomas Sutton and Phebe Humphries in 1820, Jefferson County). In 1820, Elizabeth McDonald Humphries remarried to Samuel Culberston Brady in Jefferson County, MS. At least one child: Stephen Alexander Brady. On April 22, 1835, Stephen Allen and Phebe Humphries Sutton sold land in Claiborne County, MS, to John B. Thrasher. The land was "lot number one eight and sixteen section no. 26 township no. 13 of range no. one east containing 160 and 40/100 acres." John B. # Several Humphries Families

In an attempt to connect Phebe with another Humphries family, I compiled info about 3 major Humphries families in Mississippi.

Family #1: (This family looks like the most likely candidate because of their involvement with the estate of Thomas Sutton - Daniel Osteen, Sutton Allen, and Richard Humphrey purchased items from the estate of Thomas Sutton; When Phebe died and left land to her children, Henry McDonald non suited all of it from them).

Elizabeth McDonald Humphries Family (sources: Mildred Brady Ventulocci Maxine Nolan, and DeeDee _____ from RootsWeb.com)

Elizabeth McDonald, d. in Jefferson Co., MS, married ____ Humphries. Children (I don't know their birth order): 1. John McDonald Humphries 2. Margaret Humphries married Daniel Osteen in Jefferson County, MS, on 4 August 1828. Margaret was born about 1810-1815. Dan'el Osteen purchased items from the estate of Thomas Sutton (whose wife was Phebe Humphries), born in MS 1808, married Thomas in Jefferson Co. in Nov. 1820 - is she related to this family? on January 5, 1831 3. Richard Humphries (spelled Humphrey, also purchased items from the estate of Thomas Sutton), died in 1827. 4. David Humphries, married Elizabeth Allen, known child: Elijah Jefferson Humphreys, b. 1825-1830 Jefferson Co. Elizabeth married second to Hampton Pennington. 5. Marian Humphries married Stephen Allen in 1829 Jefferson County, MS (Stephen also purchased items from the estate of Thomas Sutton. William B. Allen officiated the marriage of Thomas Sutton and Phebe Humphries in 1820 - Jefferson County). In 1843, Elizabeth McDonald Humphries remarried to Samuel Culbertson Brady in Jefferson County, MS. At least one child: Stephen Alexander Brady. On April 22, 1835, Stephen Allen and Phebe Humphries Sutton sold land in Oktibbeha County, MS, to John B. Thrasher. The land was "lot number one eight and eleven section no. 26 township no. 15 of range no. one east containing 160 and 40/100 acres." John B. Thrasher was a prominent lawyer in Oktibbeha County and owned a plantation in Tensas Parish, LA, called "Yucatan". John's wife was Eliza Eagan/Egard, whom he married in Virginia.

In 1803, John Humphreys sold land to John Egard near Nathan Allen's land in St. Helena Parish (which was part of the Mississippi Territory until 1810 when LA became its own state). John has been mentioned as a possible husband to Elizabeth McDonald.
In 1851, Margaret Sutton (daughter of Phebe Humphries Sutton), now a resident of Tensas Parish, sold land to Henry McDonald (related to Elizabeth McDonald Humphries?) in Jefferson Co. Seventy seven and 94/100 acres being the east half of the north west Quarter of section no. fifty-five township nine range two east. In 1852, Thomas and John Sutton, (also Phebe's children), now residents of Tensas Parish, sold land to Henry McDonald. The north east quarter of section no. fifty-five in Township No. Nine of Range No. Two East in the District of Lands west of Pearl River and containing seventy-seven 93/100 acres...in Jefferson Co. Phebe had 2 other children who were deceased by this time: Stephen Sutton and a daughter whose name is unknown (she was one of two daughters in the 1830 MS census).

Family #2: (This family had a Phoebe, and they lived in the same area as Thomas and Phebe Humphries Sutton)
Jonathan Humphreys Family
Source: Glen Brady (courthouse, census, and Bible records) Jonathan Humphreys was born September 20, 1722. Phoebe Humphreys (his wife?) was born June 26, 1723. (source: "Bible of George W. Humphreys" from Pike-Amite-Walthald Library System, 114 State Street, McComb, MS 39648) . They were probably born in VA. Probable child: • Eustace Humphreys, born November 25, 1753, died April 5, 1815, (according to Bible record). Married Mary _____. Bible record shows that Mary Humphreys died March 17, 1813. One of the earliest official references to Humphreys / Humphries was the 1792 Spanish Natchez Territory Census: Just Humphreys in Villa Gayoso and Eustace Humphreys. Eustace was granted 200 acres of land on Cole's Creek in 1798. Possible children of Eustace Humphreys, according to "Bible of George W. Humphreys" • Ann Brighty Humphreys b. Sept. 14, 1773 • Stephen Humphreys b. Sept. 5, 1775 • Joel Humphreys b. Sept. 22, 1777, died March 4, 1813. • Lewis Humphreys b. March 19, 1782 • Mary Humphreys b. May 20, 1784 • Uriah Humphreys b. Friday, March 18, 1788, died Friday, October 5, 1860. According to Jefferson County courthouse records, Uriah Humphries married Nancy Atwood in 1811. Nancy Humphries, wife of Uriah Humphries, is listed in an 1817 obituary form Clark County, GA. Uriah married second to Catherine C. Brown on Oct. 23, 1817 according to Bible record. According to Bible record, Catherine C. Humphreys died Aug. 20, 1858, 64 years old. Uriah was born around 1788 in Mississippi, according to the 1850 and 1860 censuses. His parents were probably living in Jefferson County in the central to eastern portion. This area was referred to as the "Scotch Settlement" because it was settled by the Scots as early as the 1760's. Uriah first appeared in the censuses in 1820 in Franklin County. Possible child: Catherine Humphries, married Daniel Patterson. Uriah sold this land to this couple in the 1840's: NW ¼, Section 12 / T8N-R3E, Jefferson County.

Message Board Post:

I am researching 3 Humphries / Humphreys families of Mississippi that I believe are related. My ancestor was Phebe Humphries Sutton (b. 1803 Jefferson County, MS, d. 1851 Tensas Parish, LA), and I am trying to find her parents. In the 1830 Jefferson County probate of her husband Thomas Sutton, a group of possible relatives of Phebe purchased items from the estate sale. These people are in Family #1 (shown below).

Family #1: Elizabeth McDonald Humphries Family

Elizabeth McDonald, d. in Jefferson Co., MS, married ____ Humphries.
Children:

? 1 John McDonald Humphries
? 2 Margaret Humphries married Daniel Osteen in Jefferson County, MS, on 4 August 1828. Margaret was born about 1810-1815. Daniel Osteen purchased items from the estate of Thomas Sutton on January 5, 1831.
? 3 Richard Humphries (spelled Humphrey, also purchased items from the estate of Thomas Sutton), died in 1837.
? 4 David Humphries, married Elizabeth Allen. Known child: Elijah Jefferson Humphreys, b. 1825-1830 Jefferson Co. Elizabeth married second to Hampton Pennington.
? 5 Mariah Humphries married Stephen Allen in 1829 Jefferson County, MS (Stephen also purchased items from the estate of Thomas Sutton. William S. Allen officiated the marriage of Thomas Sutton and Phebe Humphries in 1820, Jefferson County).
In 1820, Elizabeth McDonald Humphries remarried to Samuel Culberston Brady in Jefferson County, MS. At least one child: Stephen Alexander Brady.

The following information was posted by Glen Brady (descended from Stephen Alexander Brady) on the RootsWeb Humphries Board:

As best I can tell, Elijah Jefferson Humphries was the son of David and Elizabeth Allen Humphries, born in Jefferson Co, MS between 1825 and 1830. David Humphries died between 1830 and 1850. Elizabeth A. Humphries married Hampton Pennington between 1835 and 1840. At that time he was a widower. She apparently had family in the Livingston Parish, La. area who had migrated from South Carolina. I can not explain how the other family members ended up in La and how she ended up in MS. David Humphries' mother was named "Elizabeth" and her maiden name was either "Osteen", "Robinette", or "McDonald". I have not determined her first husband's first name. "Elizabeth Humphries" married "Samuel Brady" in Jefferson Co, Ms in 1821. Elizabeth's children from her first marriage were 1) Margaret, 2) David, 3) Richard, and 4) Mariah. As best I can tell, her only child from the second marriage was Stephen Alexander Brady, my ggg-grandfather. Hope this helps you.

On April 22, 1835, Stephen Allen (husband of Mariah Humphries) and Phebe Humphries Sutton sold land in Claiborne County, MS, to John B. Thrasher. The land was "lot number one eight and sixteen section no. 26 township no. 13 of range no. one east containing 160 and 40/100 acres." John B. Thrasher was a prominent lawyer in Claiborne County and, according to Tensas Parish land records, owned a plantation in Tensas Parish called "Yucatan". John's wife was Eliza Eagan/Egard, whom he married in Virginia.

According to DeeDee, whom I met on the RootWeb Humphries message board: in 1803, John Humphreys sold land to John Egard near Nathan Allen's land in St. Helena Parish (which was part of the Mississippi Territory until 1810 when LA became its own state). John Humpheys has been mentioned as a possible husband to Elizabeth McDonald.

In 1851, Margaret Sutton (daughter of Phebe Humphries Sutton), now a resident of Tensas Parish, sold land to Henry McDonald (related to Elizabeth McDonald Humphries?) in Jefferson Co. Seventy seven and 94/100 acres being the east half of the north west Quarter of section no. fifty-five township nine range two east. In 1852, Thomas and John Sutton ( Phebe's sons), now residents of Tensas Parish, sold land to Henry McDonald. The north east quarter of section no. fifty-five in Township No. Nine of Range No. Two East in the District of Lands west of Pearl River and containing seventy-seven 93/100 acres in Jefferson Co.

The following family is interesting because they lived near Thomas Sutton and Phebe Humphries, and they had family members named Phebe. Family members had a tendency to travel together in groups and to use the same family names over and over.
Family #2: Jonathan Humphreys Family
Source: Glen Brady, who is descended from Family #1
Jonathan Humphreys was born September 20, 1722. Phoebe Humphreys (his wife?) was born June 26, 1723. (source: "Bible of George W. Humphreys" from Pike-Amite-Walthald Library System, 114 State Street, McComb, MS 39648) . They were probably born in VA. Probable child:
. Eustace Humphreys, born November 25, 1753, died April 5, 1815, (according to Bible record). Married Mary _____. Bible record shows that Mary Humphreys died March 17, 1813. One of the earliest official references to Humphreys / Humphries was the 1792 Spanish Natchez Territory Census: Just Humphreys in Villa Gayoso and Eustace Humphreys. Eustace was granted 200 acres of land on Cole's Creek in 1798.
Eustace Humphreys is an unusual name. This name is found in these sources:
? Hustis Humphrys, 1810 Mississippi Territory Census
? Eustace Humphreys, bill of sale to Cato West, August 24, 1802, Jefferson County, MS
? Hughstress Humphrey witnessed a land transaction of Lewis Davis to John Norwood of Edgecomb County, NC, 1757: "100 pounds gold and silver money of Virginia."
? Eustis Humlphrey, deed of sale, 1745, Edgecomb County, NC
? Benjamin Lane to Hustriss Humphrey of Edgecomb County, 1745, "10 pounds current money of Virginia 100 acres."

Possible children of Eustace Humphreys, according to Humphreys listed in the "Bible of George W. Humphreys"
. Ann Brighty Humphreys b. Sept. 14, 1773
. Stephen Humphreys b. Sept. 5, 1775
. Joel Humphreys b. Sept. 22, 1777, died March 4, 1813.
. Lewis Humphreys b. March 19, 1782
. Mary Humphreys b. May 20, 1784
. Uriah Humphreys b. Friday, March 18, 1788, died Friday, October 5, 1860. According to Jefferson County courthouse records, Uriah Humphries married Nancy Atwood in 1811. Nancy Humphries, wife of Uriah Humphries, is listed in an 1817 obituary form Clark County, GA. Uriah married second to Catherine C. Brown on Oct. 23, 1817 according to Bible record. According to Bible record, Catherine C. Humphreys died Aug. 20, 1858, 64 years old. Uriah was born around 1788 in Mississippi, according to the 1850 and 1860 censuses. In the 1840 census, he was living near the Mrs. P. Sutton household, and was living next door to Jonathan Humphreys. Uriah's parents were probably living in Jefferson County in the central to eastern portion at the time of his birth in 1788.. This area was referred to as the "Scotch Settlement" because it was settled by the Scots as early as the 1760's. Uriah first appeared in the censuses in 1820 in Franklin County (NOTE: Thomas Sutton, husband of Phebe Humphries!

, first appeared in Mississippi in 1820 in Franklin County). Possible child:
Catherine Humphries, married Daniel Patterson. Uriah sold this land to this couple in the 1840's: NW , Section 12 / T8N-R3E, Jefferson County (NOTE: Phebe left land to her children, which was located in Township 9).Uriah Humphries is an unusual name. Another Uriah Humphries served in the American Revolution in Botetourt County, WV, and is in the DAR Patriot Index. In Botetourt County, he is listed in the Order Book from 1771 - 1792, performing many services for the county. This Uriah was the 5th child of Joseph Humphries and Elizabeth Tigner of Northumberland County, VA. Uriah's wife's name was Nancy Burts. He is found in Clark County, GA, from 1805 until his death in 1816.
RootsWeb Message Board, Mike Hillman query
Query: Looking for relatives of Uriah Humphreys (b. 1700), Jonathan Humphreys (b. 1722), Eustace (Eustice) Humphreys (b. 1753) married Ann Brighty (Brighton). Eustace and Ann Humphreys had the following children:
1. Stephen b. 1775 married Sara Smith
2. Joel b. 1777
3. Lewis b. 1782
4. Mary b. 1784
5. Uriah v. 1788 married Catherine Brown
6. Jonathan b. 1792 married Lodotia Woolly
7. Phoebe born 1793
8. William born 1795

Family #3 is one of the oldest and most prominent Humphreys families in Mississippi. They lived north of Jefferson County in Claiborne County. I included this family because 1) family #3 and family #2 both named children George W. and David for several generations, and 2) Phebe Humphries Sutton sold land in Claiborne County in 1835. I wondered if she inherited the land from relatives in Claiborne County.
Family #3: George Wilson Humphreys Family of Claiborne County, MS
(source: Biographical and Historical Memoirs of Mississippi, published in 1891)
The Humphreys family is an English family, and the name has been traced back to the 11th century. "The family was early divided into six branches, each one of which had a special coat of arms, all of which may be seen in the Herald office at London, where they have been since 1340." (p. 983)
Generation 1
Col. Ralph Humphries was the son of Ralph Humphries of Virginia and North Carolina. Col. Humphries married in 1768 to Agnes Wilson of VA. She was the niece of James Wilson, a signer of the Declaration of Independence. Col. Humphries and Agnes settled in Hampshire Co., WV, and later moved to South Carolina. Col. Humphries served in the American Revolution. After the war, he left his wife in SC. She sold the plantation an went to Tennessee, sailing down the Tennessee, Ohio, and Mississippi Rivers in 1788, landing at the famous Grindstone Ford landing of the north fork of the Bayou Pierre river on September 10 (p. 980 and 983). The country was under the Spanish governor, Gayoso, at that time. Ralph died a few months after the move in 1789. His wife remarried to Col. Daniel Burnett, a Spanish officer. The plantation is still owed by G. Wilson Humphreys (see Generation 4).
Generation 2
1. Ralph, accidentally killed at the age of 14 when he was thrown by a Choctaw pony.
2. Capt. G.W. (George Wilson, p. 980) Humphreys was born in SC on March 23, 1771 and died December 15, 1843. Married Sarah, daughter of Capt. David Smith, "who came from her native state of TN to MS in her girlhood, settling near Clinton." Married on January 17, 1792. She was born January 19, 1776 and died December 20, 1817. They were members of the Methodist Episcopal Church "as were most of the Humphreys". (Note:Her sister married Hiram J. Reynold, 4th governor of MS.) They had 3 sons and 3 daughters who lived to marry, the rest dying in childhood.
Generation 3
David G. Humphreys was born May 17, 1794 and died January 11, 1871. Married Mary Cobun in 1820, "a native of this county, a descendant of an early settler of this region, Samuel Cobun, Sr." She was born July 31, 1794, died July 19, 1874. David and Mary are buried at the Hermitage in Claiborne County.They had 5 sons and 2 daughters, "the eldest son and daughter who died young."
Generation 4
1. G. Wilson Humphreys, born on Oakland Plantation on which he is still living on September 16, 1819. "One of the oldest and most successful planters, as well as one of the oldest settlers of Claiborne County." Married Cathrine B. Prince who was born August 24, 1824, a graduate of Port Gibson female college. Died November 24, 1870. Members of the Methodist Episcopal Church.
Seven children:
1.Benjamin (died October 7, 1878 of yellow fever at age 20 years, 8 months, and 20 days)
2.William P (born November 9, 1845, died November 6, 1863)
3. Catherine B. (born December 29, 1863, died September 16, 1870). Married F.F. Myles
4. Mary Coburn (born August 7, 1860, died September 13, 1863)
5. David George (born Feb. 18, 1847). Lives on Hermitage Place.

6. Samuel C. (born March 4, 1849). Lives on Ashland Farm.
7. Bayless E. (born November 23, 1851). Lives on Oaklawn Plantation.

2. Benjamin Humphreys born February 1827, the fourth of nine children. Married Mary Scott Jeffries on November 6, 1850, "at Scogy the old family homestead of the latter".

I'm not so sure about Glenn's statement that a "The daughter of Margaret Humphries Osteen married the son of the deceased Richard Humphries who was raised by his grandmother, Elizabeth Brady" - if he means James M Humphries and Emily C. Osteen - a quick look at the census indicates other parents - will follow up when I have a chance to look at it more closely.

later. Bottom line, I believe Elizabeth Patterson married a son of Eustice Humphries, Probably Stephen, in the early 1800's in Jefferson County. Eustice Humphries and family had been in the Natchez Territory since at least 1785. He was part of a contingency recruited by the Spanish Governor Miro to grow tobacco and indigo for export to Spain.
This activity ceased in the mid 1890's; most of those who had beenn recruited simply stayed when the program stopped. The couple, Elizabeth Patterson Humphries and Stephen Humphries had at least four children, Richard Humphries, David Humphries, Margaret Humphries, and Mariah Humphries. Stephen Humphries was dead prior to 1820 when Elizabeth Patterson Humphries married Samuel Brady. Stephen Brady was probably the only child of that union and Samuel Brady probably died prior to 1825. The two sons from the first marriage, Richard and David, were dead before 1840.
Mariah disappeared. Margaret Humphries married Daniel Osteen. In the early 1859's the Osteens moved to Cains, in Franklin County. The daughter of Margaret Humphries Osteen married the son of the deceased
Richard Humphries who was raised by his grandmother, Elizabeth Brady! I know this is probably giving you a head ache so I'll try to put the rest of the "stuff" in another edition.

Melanie,

Humphries
I have been studying the Humphries, Humphrey, Humphreys, Umfree, etc... for some time. I first tried to construct a direct link between the bunch which can be loosely described as "the Uriah bunch" and the later group. I have come to believe this is not the case. A "Eustace Humphreys" appeared in the Natchez Territory between 1780 and 1790. He also appears on a list of colonists recruited by the Spanish Governor Miro to the territory to grow tobacco and indigo for shipment to Spain. This Eustace Humphreys' family had one child named "Uriah". There are too many "Uriah H..." "sightings" in the Louisiana and Mississippi records and the times are too spread-out for this "Uriah" to have accounted for all of them. There is a record of a marriage, 1810, in Amite Co,MS between "Uriah Humphries" and "Nancy Atwood". To my knowledge, there are no records of the period which indicate this marriage took place. Clarke Co, GA records indicate an 1817 marriage between "Uriah Humphries" and "Catherine Brown". Early Jefferson Co, MS court house records have several "Uriah Humphries" transactions which indicate his wife was "Catherine Brown Humphries". Chalkey's accounts of the Scotch-Irish in Augusta Co, VA lists "Humphries" as among the earliest settlers. I have come to believe the family migrated from this point, one group into [1] Boutetourt Co, Va, [2] Clarke Co, Georgia, and into [3] the Mississippi Territory. A second group migrated into [1] the Surrey Co, NC area, [2] Onslow Co, NC, [3] Pendleton District, SC and then to [4] the Mississippi Territory. Another observation centers around the name variations; the earliest Humphries appeared to prefer the "Humphreys" spelling while the later group favored the "Humphries" spelling. Interestingly enough, the Claiborne Co, MS group favored the singular, "Humphrey". I am convinced all three originated from the Augusta Co, GA group or an earlier Pennsylvania or Deleware site.

Osteen
I did some NC checking on the Osteens. The first mention I found of them was a marriage between "Henry Osteen" and "Margaret McCullough", the place being Craven District, the time being early 1700's or late 1600's. I have found that the "exactness" of most of this very early information can usually be taken with a grain of salt". However, the basic message is usually true. Taking this as a starting point, I arrived at this conclusion, an "Osteen" and a "McCullough" married at a very early date and, by some set of events came to be in the Camden area, also at a very early date. This "triggered" a chain of thoughts. In the early 1700's, an Ulster native, Henry McCulloch, acquired rights to large acreage in eastern North Carolina. According to the sketchy historical accounts, Henry Mc Culloch was born in "the Scotch colony in Ulster". At an early age, he went to London where he became a successful financier. In the early 1700's, Henry McCulloch acquired rights to this large area in North Carolina and began the process of relocating poor Ulster farmers to sites on his North Carolina holdings. Could the early Osteen marriage indicate some ties to the McCulloch family? If so, "Osteens" could be one of the oldest Ulster families in the southeast.

On another tangent.....
I took the liberty of examining the court house records of Onslow Co, NC looks ing for Osteens. The name "Austin" appears in the 1740's.; the name "Osteen", in the 1760's. The interesting thing is that the same land description which involved being sold to "Daniel Austin" in the 1740 is recorded as being sold by "Daniel Osteen" twenty years later, in the 1760's. Conclusion; same person, different spelling and pronunciation. By the 1780's, "Austins" had disappeared from the Onslow records, "Osteens" were still there. In this time period, these Osteens apparently migrated to Sumter Co, SC.

Interesting coincidence, back to Mississippi-Louisiana and your last e-mail, Elizabeth Allen Humphries, wife of David Hunt Humphries, has at least three children by this marriage, Elijah Jefferson Humphries and William Humphries and the third name is impossible to read in the 1850 Livingston Parish, LA census. Your last e-mail referred to a "David" and an "Elijah Humphries" in Surry Co, NC. Just guessing, "Elijah" was probably father of "David". This "David" moved to Pendleton District, SC in 1802.

joyce, before I begin, I must confess to sloppy documentation and I often forget my sources. In researching my own line, I became wrapped up in the Humphries family. There appears to be two "Elizabeth Humphries"; the first is the mother of David Humphries who apparently migrated to southwest MS between 1810 and 1820. As best I can tell, she and a husband probably migrated with the four children. I am fairly certain "David Humphries was the oldest and either married the second Elizabeth either prior to migrating to MS or just after arriving in MS. The second Elizabeth was "Elizabeth Allen" and her birth place was "South Carolina". From deeds in Jefferson Co, MS, I have determined that David Humphries died between 1830 and 1835. In another research project, I discovered Elizabeth Allen Humphries marrying Hampton Pennington in Livingston Parish, LA. A Livingston Parish history book confirmed that Elizabeth Allen had migrated first from SC to Jefferson Co, MS, married a Humphries and upon his death had moved to Livingston Parish, LA where the rest of the Allen family had located. Somewhere in my notes, I have something about Jefferson Humphries, after 1850, selling a piece of land in Jefferson Co, MS which David Humphries had claimed in the early 1830's.

i saw the note you forwarded from the humphries-osteen researcher in your neighborhood. from the tone and the remarks in the various documents and a bunch of other circumstantial evidence, I have concluded that Elizabeth ? humphries was a widow when she married samuel brady. as best i can tell, the children of her first marriage were [1] margaret humphries, [2] mariah humphries, [3] richard humphries, and [4] david humphries. margaret humphries married daniel osteen, mariah humphries married stephen allen, richard humphries married mary rainey, david humphries married elizabeth allen. both richard and david humphries died before 1840, before they were 40 years of age. richard and mary rainey humphries had two children, james m. humphries, and minerva humphries. david and elizabeth allen humphries apparently had only one child, elijah jefferson humphries. elizabeth allen h. remarried hampton pennington and relocated to livingston parish, louisiana. elijah jefferson apparently grew up in the pennington household in louisiana. he disappears after the civil war. the last record of him was in the 1860 census. his household included a son, william humphries. a "william brady humphries" appears in west alabama in the 1880,s. have not been able to followup on this one. have not been able to trace mariah and stephen allen. Minerva humphries married first a mcgee then a mcvoy, all in jefferson county. james m. humphries married emily osteen, daughter of margaret and daniel osteen. margaret humphries osteen can be found in the 1880 mississiippi census living with her son, david osteen.

Co. Seventy seven and 94/100 acres being the east half of the north west Quarter of section no. fifty-five township nine range two east. In 1852, Thomas and John Sutton ( Phebe's sons), now residents of Tensas Parish, sold land to Henry McDonald. The north east quarter of section no. fifty-five in Township No. Nine of Range No. Two East in the District of Lands west of Pearl River and containing seventy-seven 93/100 acres in Jefferson Co.

The following family is interesting because they lived near Thomas Sutton and Phebe Humphries, and they had family members named Phebe. Family members had a tendency to travel together in groups and to use the same family names over and over.
Family #2: Jonathan Humphreys Family
Source: Glen Brady, who is descended from Family #1
Jonathan Humphreys was born September 20, 1722. Phoebe Humphreys (his wife?) was born June 26, 1723. (source: "Bible of George W. Humphreys" from Pike-Amite-Walthald Library System, 114 State Street, McComb, MS 39648) . They were probably born in VA.
Probable child:
• Eustace Humphreys, born November 25, 1753, died April 5, 1815, (according to Bible record). Married Mary _____. Bible record shows that Mary Humphreys died March 17, 1813.
One of the earliest official references to Humphreys / Humphries was the 1792 Spanish Natchez Territory Census: Just Humphreys in Villa Gayoso and Eustace Humphreys. Eustace was granted 200 acres of land on Cole's Creek in 1798.
Eustace Humphreys is an unusual name. This name is found in these sources:
- Hustis Humphrys, 1810 Mississippi Territory Census
- Eustace Humphreys, bill of sale to Cato West, August 24, 1802, Jefferson County, MS
- Hughstress Humphrey witnessed a land transaction of Lewis Davis to John Norwood of Edgecomb County, NC, 1757: "100 pounds gold and silver money of Virginia."
- Eustis Humlphrey, deed of sale, 1745, Edgecomb County, NC
- Benjamin Lane to Hustriss Humphrey of Edgecomb County, 1745, "10 pounds current money of Virginia 100 acres."

Possible children of Eustace Humphreys, according to Humphreys listed in the "Bible of George W. Humphreys"
• Ann Brighty Humphreys b. Sept. 14, 1773
• Stephen Humphreys b. Sept. 5, 1775
• Joel Humphreys b. Sept. 22, 1777, died March 4, 1813.
• Lewis Humphreys b. March 19, 1782
• Mary Humphreys b. May 20, 1784
• Uriah Humphreys b. Friday, March 18, 1788, died Friday, October 5, 1860. According to Jefferson County courthouse records, Uriah Humphries married Nancy Atwood in 1811. Nancy Humphries, wife of Uriah Humphries, is listed in an 1817 obituary form Clark County, GA. Uriah married second to Catherine C. Brown on Oct. 23, 1817 according to Bible record. According to Bible record, Catherine C. Humphreys died Aug. 20, 1858, 64 years old. Uriah was born around 1788 in Mississippi, according to the 1850 and 1860 censuses. In the 1840 census, he was living near the Mrs. P. Sutton household, and was living next door to Jonathan Humphreys. Uriah's parents were probably living in Jefferson County in the central to eastern portion at the time of his birth in 1788.. This area was referred to as the "Scotch Settlement" because it was settled by the Scots as early as the 1760's. Uriah first appeared in the censuses in 1820 in Franklin County (NOTE: Thomas Sutton, husband of Phebe Humphries, first appeared in Mississippi in 1820 in Franklin County). Possible child:
Catherine Humphries, married Daniel Patterson. Uriah sold this land to this couple in the 1840's: NW ¼, Section 12 / T8N-R3E, Jefferson County (NOTE: Phebe left land to her children, which was located in Township 9).
Uriah Humphries is an unusual name. Another Uriah Humphries served in the American Revolution in Botetourt County, WV, and is in the DAR Patriot Index. In Botetourt County, he is listed in the Order Book from 1771 – 1792, performing many services for the county. This Uriah was the 5th child of Joseph Humphries and Elizabeth Tigner of Northumberland County, VA. Uriah's wife's name was Nancy Burts. He is found in Clark County, GA, from 1805 until his death in 1816.

1. Stephen b. 1775 married Sara Smith
2. Joel b. 1777
3. Lewis b. 1782
4. Mary b. 1784
5. Uriah v. 1788 married Catherine Brown
6. Jonathan b. 1792 married Lodotia Woolly

7. Phoebe born 1793
8. William born 1795

Family #3 is one of the oldest and most prominent Humphreys families in Mississippi. They lived north of Jefferson County in Claiborne County. I included this family because 1) family #3 and family #2 both named children George W. and David for several generations, and 2) Phebe Humphries Sutton sold land in Claiborne County in 1835. I wondered if she inherited the land from relatives in Claiborne County.
Family #3: George Wilson Humphreys Family of Claiborne County, MS
(source: Biographical and Historical Memoirs of Mississippi, published in 1891)
The Humphreys family is an English family, and the name has been traced back to the 11th century. "The family was early divided into six branches, each one of which had a special coat of arms, all of which may be seen in the Herald office at London, where they have been since 1340." (p. 983)
Generation 1
Col. Ralph Humphries was the son of Ralph Humphries of Virginia and North Carolina. Col. Humphries married in 1768 to Agnes Wilson of VA. She was the niece of James Wilson, a signer of the Declaration of Independence. Col. Humphries and Agnes settled in Hampshire Co., WV, and later moved to South Carolina. Col. Humphries served in the American Revolution. After the war, he left his wife in SC. She sold the plantation an went to Tennessee, sailing down the Tennessee, Ohio, and Mississippi Rivers in 1788, landing at the famous Grindstone Ford landing of the north fork of the Bayou Pierre river on September 10 (p. 980 and 983). The country was under the Spanish governor, Gayoso, at that time. Ralph died a few months after the move in 1789. His wife remarried to Col. Daniel Burnett, a Spanish officer. The plantation is still owed by G. Wilson Humphreys (see Generation 4).
Generation 2
1. Ralph, accidentally killed at the age of 14 when he was thrown by a Choctaw pony.
2. Capt. G.W. (George Wilson, p. 980) Humphreys was born in SC on March 23, 1771 and died December 15, 1843. Married Sarah, daughter of Capt. David Smith, "who came from her native state of TN to MS in her girlhood, settling near Clinton." Married on January 17, 1792. She was born January 19, 1776 and died December 20, 1817. They were members of the Methodist Episcopal Church "as were most of the Humphreys". (Note:Her sister married Hiram J. Reynold, 4th governor of MS.) They had 3 sons and 3 daughters who lived to marry, the rest dying in childhood.
Generation 3
David G. Humphreys was born May 17, 1794 and died January 11, 1871. Married Mary Cobun in 1820, "a native of this county, a descendant of an early settler of this region, Samuel Cobun, Sr." She was born July 31, 1794, died July 19, 1874. David and Mary are buried at the Hermitage in Claiborne County.They had 5 sons and 2 daughters, "the eldest son and daughter who died young."
Generation 4
1. G. Wilson Humphreys, born on Oakland Plantation on which he is still living on September 16, 1819. "One of the oldest and most successful planters, as well as one of the oldest settlers of Claiborne County." Married Cathrine B. Prince who was born August 24, 1824, a graduate of Port Gibson female college. Died November 24, 1870. Members of the Methodist Episcopal Church.
Seven children:
1.Benjamin (died October 7, 1878 of yellow fever at age 20 years, 8 months, and 20 days)
2.William P (born November 9, 1845, died November 6, 1863)
3. Catherine B. (born December 29, 1863, died September 16, 1870). Married F.F. Myles
4. Mary Coburn (born August 7, 1860, died September 13, 1863)
5. David George (born Feb. 18, 1847). Lives on Hermitage Place.
6. Samuel C. (born March 4, 1849). Lives on Ashland Farm.
7. Bayless E. (born November 23, 1851). Lives on Oaklawn Plantation.

2. Benjamin Humphreys born February 1827, the fourth of nine children. Married Mary Scott Jeffries on November 6, 1850, "at Scogy the old family homestead of the latter".

Message Board Post:

I am researching 3 Humphries / Humphreys families of Mississippi that I believe are related. My ancestor was Phebe Humphries Sutton (b. 1803 Jefferson County, MS, d. 1851 Tensas Parish, LA), and I am trying to find her parents. In the 1830 Jefferson County probate of her husband Thomas Sutton, a group of possible relatives of Phebe purchased items from the estate sale. These people are in Family #1 (shown below).

Family #1: Elizabeth McDonald Humphries Family

Elizabeth McDonald, d. in Jefferson Co., MS, married ____ Humphries.
Children:

? John McDonald Humphries
? Margaret Humphries married Daniel Osteen in Jefferson County, MS, on 4 August 1828. Margaret was born about 1810-1815. Daniel Osteen purchased items from the estate of Thomas Sutton on January 5, 1831.
? Richard Humphries (spelled Humphrey, also purchased items from the estate of Thomas Sutton), died in 1837.
? David Humphries, married Elizabeth Allen. Known child: Elijah Jefferson Humphreys, b. 1825-1830 Jefferson Co. Elizabeth married second to Hampton Pennington.
? Mariah Humphries married Stephen Allen in 1829 Jefferson County, MS (Stephen also purchased items from the estate of Thomas Sutton. William S. Allen officiated the marriage of Thomas Sutton and Phebe Humphries in 1820, Jefferson County).
In 1820, Elizabeth McDonald Humphries remarried to Samuel Culberston Brady in Jefferson County, MS. At least one child: Stephen Alexander Brady.

The following information was posted by Glen Brady (descended from Stephen Alexander Brady) on the RootsWeb Humphries Board:
As best I can tell, Elijah Jefferson Humphries was the son of David and Elizabeth Allen Humphries, born in Jefferson Co, MS between 1825 and 1830. David Humphries died between 1830 and 1850. Elizabeth A. Humphries married Hampton Pennington between 1835 and 1840. At that time he was a widower. She apparently had family in the Livingston Parish, La. area who had migrated from South Carolina. I can not explain how the other family members ended up in La and how she ended up in MS. David Humphries' mother was named "Elizabeth" and her maiden name was either "Osteen", "Robinette", or "McDonald". I have not determined her first husband's first name. "Elizabeth Humphries" married "Samuel Brady" in Jefferson Co, Ms in 1821. Elizabeth's children from her first marriage were 1) Margaret, 2) David, 3) Richard, and 4) Mariah. As best I can tell, her only child from the second marriage was Stephen Alexander Brady, my ggg-grandfather. Hope this helps you.

On April 22, 1835, Stephen Allen (husband of Mariah Humphries) and Phebe Humphries Sutton sold land in Claiborne County, MS, to John B. Thrasher. The land was "lot number one eight and sixteen section no. 26 township no. 13 of range no. one east containing 160 and 40/100 acres." John B. Thrasher was a prominent lawyer in Claiborne County and, according to Tensas Parish land records, owned a plantation in Tensas Parish called "Yucatan". John's wife was Eliza Eagan/Egard, whom he married in Virginia.

According to DeeDee, whom I met on the RootWeb Humphries message board: in 1803, John Humphreys sold land to John Egard near Nathan Allen's land in St. Helena Parish (which was part of the Mississippi Territory until 1810 when LA became its own state). John Humpheys has been mentioned as a possible husband to Elizabeth McDonald.

In 1851, Margaret Sutton (daughter of Phebe Humphries Sutton), now a resident of Tensas Parish, sold land to Henry McDonald (related to Elizabeth McDonald Humphries?) in Jefferson Co. Seventy seven and 94/100 acres being the east half of the north west Quarter of section no. fifty-five township nine range two east. In 1852, Thomas and John Sutton ( Phebe's sons), now residents of Tensas Parish, sold land to Henry McDonald. The north east quarter of section no. fifty-five in Township No. Nine of Range No. Two East in the District of Lands west of Pearl River and containing seventy-seven 93/100 acres in Jefferson Co.

The following family is interesting because they lived near Thomas Sutton and Phebe Humphries, and they had family members named Phebe. Family members had a tendency to travel together in groups and to use the same family names over and over.

Comments about material-----
Most of these incidents apparently took place in Jefferson Co., Miss. in an area referred to as ``the Scotch Settlements''. The exceptions were probably:

page 4: ``Jonathan'' and ``Phoebe'' Humphreys were probably the parents of Eustace Humphreys. These births were probably in Virginia.

The fact that I found the information about the death of Uriah Humphreys' first wife, Nancy Atwood Humphreys, and remarriage to Catherine C. Brown in some Clarke Co., Ga material lead me to believe the Mississippi Humphreys maintained contact with the group which had moved from Virginia to Georgia.

| Uriah Humphries | Nancy Atwood | 1811 |

Humphries/ Humphreys appeared in the first Miss census(1820) as a resident of Franklin Co. The household at that time contained: a male and a female between the ages of 26 and 45; 1 female over 45 years of age; 2 males under 10 years of age; 2 females between 10 and 16, and; 2 females between 16 and 25.

In the 1830 census two families appear in Jefferson County with the name of Humphries/Humphreys. The David H. family consisted of 1 male between 20 and 30, 1 female between 40 and 50, 1 male between 5 and 10, and 1 male between 15 and 20.

The Uriah H. family appeared now in Jefferson County with a male between 40 and 50; a female between 20 and 30; a male between 20 and 30, a male between 15 and 20, a male between 5 and 10; a male under 5; and a female under 5.

The Jonathan H. family consisted of a male and a female between 20 and 30 and a female under 5.

The Uriah H. family consisted of a male and female over 40, 1 female between 10 and 15, 1 male between 5 and 10, 1 male between 10 and 15, and 2 males between 15 and 20.

Beginning in the 1850 census, individuals were required to indicate place of birth. Three Humphreys [ies] are listed as follows:

*Property records & probate records indicate the presence of more Humphries families living in Jefferson Co. between 1810 and 1850 than are accounted for in the censuses. One of this group was headed by "Richard Humphries" who died in 1837. Probate records are available in Jefferson Co. Chancery Clerk of Court Office. Probate records indicate a close relationship with the names and families listed above. "Elizabeth Brady" is listed as among the heirs in the probate records.

The present Jefferson Co. Humphries are probably descendants of Uriah Humphries. According to the above census records,J. Brown Humphries is a grandson of Uriah Humphries. The record is not so clear on the maternal side. Uriah Humphries first married Nancy Atwood in 1811. A comparison of the female parent age in the 1830 census probably indicates a second wife. Court house records indicate property sales in the 1830's in which "Uriah and Catherine Humphries" sold property as man wife, indicating Nancy was either no longer living or no longer the wife of Uriah Humphries.

An 1840's property transaction in which "Uriah and Catherine Humphries" sold a piece of property to "Daniel and Catherine Patterson indicate a strong relationship between them. Above census records indicate "Catherine Patterson" was the daughter of "Uriah and Catherine Humphries". The piece of property was described as part of the Humphries home place. The piece of property consisted of NW 1/4 : Section 12 / T8N- R3E. Clerk of courts records also show land holdings in T9N- R3E during this period. Earlier records(1806) show land granted to "Joel Humphreys" on Cole's Creek. Early land records also show land acquisition on Clarke's Creek. Eustice Humphreys was granted 200 acres on Cole's Creek in 1798.

Uriah Humphries in both 1850 & 1860 census indicated birth place as "Mississippi". His age in 1860 was listed as "72". This indicates he was born in the late 1780's or early 1790's. His parents were probably living in Jefferson Co. in the central to eastern portion. This area was referred to as the "Scotch Settlement". Early record show this area was settled by the Scotch as early as the 1760's. If I had to pick where his people came from, I would select Kentucky. I base that on the fact that his second wife, Catherine, was from Kentucky; and the fact that the 1860 census shows "Cas. W. Humphries" from Kentucky as a head of household who had not shown previously.

HOW ARE THE BRADYS INVOLVED IN ALL THIS?

The Jefferson County marriage records indicate a marriage in 1820 between Samuel Brady and Elizabeth Humphreys. Jefferson Co. Court records indicate a land sale in 1848 from Stephen A. Brady to Elizabeth Brady of a tract of land (top 1/2 - SW 1/4 section 2 / T8N- R2E). Wording of the transaction sounds like relinquishment of land birth rights. Later in 1848 Elizabeth Brady sold same property to "James M. and Minerva Humphreys". Terms of the sale called for the care until death of Elizabeth Brady. In the transaction aknowledgement, Elizabeth Brady indicated the transaction was with the interest of her grandchildren at heart. The 1850 census shows Elizabeth Brady as head of household with Mary Humphreys and her children as members of the household. James M. and Minerva Humphreys are part of this group. Minerva married Thomas McGee in 1855 and Frank McVoy before 1860. James M. Humphries married Emily Osteen in 1862. Stephen A. Brady, notes in family Bible, "Mother, Elizabeth, died, Nov 23, 1857". In 1850, Stephen A. Brady first appears in U. S. Census by name. He is living in St. Helena Parish, La. in the Stephen R. Corkern household. In the spring of 1850 he married Rebecca Jane Parker. Their first home site was on a plot of land in St. Helena Parish just east of the Amite River granted to "Uriah Humphries" in 1806. In the fall of 1857 Stephen Brady and his wife Jane, bought 320 acres and a home in E. Feliciana (section 50, township #3- Range #3) from Daniel and Catherine Patterson of Jefferson Co., Miss.

I am certain Elizabeth Humphreys Brady was the mother of Stephen A. Brady. The signature, "Stephen A. Brady" on the 1848 sale in Jefferson Co. Miss., is identical to the :Stephen A. Brady" signature on the 1850 East Baton Rouge Parish "Stephen A. Brady- Jane Rebecca Parker"marriage certificate. Through other records I have determined Stephen A. Brady's father's complete name was probably ``Samuel Culbertson Brady". The wording of the land transfer leads me to believe that ``Elizabeth Humphreys" was a married name; she was probably a widow and "Richard Humphreys" was from her first marriage. I don't know the 1st name of her 1st husband but courthouse records indicate she was close to both Uriah Humphries ~~Humphries~~. At this point, I believe her maiden name was either McPherson, Stephens, Robinson, or Patterson.

Nancy Humphries, wife of Uriah Humphries, is listed in an 1817obituary from Clarke County, Georgia [Georgia Genealogical Magazine; page 1625]. This fills in a blank spot and ties some other coincidental material together. Some time ago I found a number of the names I have been tracing in Augusta County, Virginia. Uriah Humphries was one of these. In the late 1700's, he was located in Botetourt County, Vriginia. This is in western Virginia south of Augusta County. The county seat is Fincastle. In the early 1800's, he answered an Augusta County, Virginia court summons from Clarke Co. Georgia.

We have a family legend that says that some of the children of Elijah were migrating to West Florida, an area from Florida to Lou. My anchestor Wm. Jones who m. Hannah Hum. was in this group. While they were in the Indian Territory they were attached. My Wm. Jones and many others were killed. Some of the relatives had gone on ahead, but the other returned to NC & GA. That was supposed to have been about 1782.

I notice the Lewis Humphries m. Milly Jones in Jefferson Co Ms 1805. I did not have this marriage. I believe that your Jefferson Co Ms family just may be from Joel and Judith. If that is correct. I will sign off with goodnight to my kissin cousin. Jerry/ Al

Melanie: Have you ever heard of the Spindletop Oil Field, and the Pelham Humphries Saga? If you have then that is the reason for the many errors that have been published on the Uriah Humphries line. Sarah Statham was the daughter of Love Statham and she married a William Humphries Some people have tried to say that Uriah name was William Uriah, but of the thousands of records that I have on Uriah no other name has every been used. I teach genealogy and one of the hard things that I find is when people find something in a book theytake it as the truth. Genealogical research is only as good as the person doing the research. I can assure you that he was never married to Sarah Statham. Uriah and Sarah were married about 1778 according the deeds records in Virginia when she started signing dower interest Their children began abt. 1780 and continue to abt 1796-7. The first child by Nancy was 1799 and the last one was born abt 1814 when Uriah was abt 86 years old. Uriah served in the army with George Washington in the French & Indian War, and may have been in military even before that. He would have been near 50 when he married Sarah.
Elijah was the oldest children of Joseph and Elizabeth Tigner Humphries and he and Judith Smith's first child was born in 1750, and daughter Judith was born in 1752. Their births are recorded in the St. Stephens Parish Church records as are Elijah's and his father Joseph.

My line is my father Henry Clay Jones, son of George Walter Jones, son of Marcus D. L. Jones, son of Hugh and Elizabeth Phillips Jones, son of Edmond Clayton and Nancy Croxton Jones; son of William and Hannah Humphries Jones, she was daughter of Elijah and Judith Smith Humphries; son of Joseph and Elizabeth Tigner Humphries both died Northumberland Co Va. The Humphries there were related to most of the early families of that county.
My Elizabeth Phillips Jones was the daughter of Mark Jr & Nancy Sheffield Phillips from Moore Co. NC.
I think that you are correct in stating that your family connected traveled togather.
I will be out of town of a few days, but I feel that we should continue to stay in touch with each other.

Melanie: I believe you have hit upon the right information.I will be glad to send the information I have on Elijah. You will find the name Eustace spelled any way the it would sound. With the H. and of course the Spanish J. I have seen it so many differant ways. I beleive they must have pronounced it Houstice.
After Joel left Halifax Co. he was in Ky. & also witnessed a deed of his bro.-in-law George W. Humphries in Montgomery Co. Tn. They must have left that area about 1808 or 9.
Send me your address. Mine is 508 Valley Dr. Reece City, Al 35954. Jerry / Al

Uriah Humphries
of Northumberland and Botetourt Cos. VA, and Clarke Co., GA
(ca 1740-1817)

[Home] [Will of Uriah Humphries (.txt file)] [article from Southern Watchman on Uriah (.rtf file)]

Uriah was the fifth child (second son) of Joseph Humphries and Elizabeth Tigner Humphries of Northumberland Co., VA.

No official document records Uriah's birthdate. The birthdates of some of the earlier children of Joseph and Elizabeth Tigner (Sarah, Elijah, Elizabeth, Diana) were recorded in Beverly Fleet's extractions of Northumberland Co., VA records. Since Uriah was not in this group, I feel that he was born later, closer to the birth date of Joseph, which is considered to be 1745/6 by most of Joseph's researchers. He and Joseph were obviously close, as they both went to GA at about the same time and settled close to each other.

Uriah Humphries appears in the book by William C. Stewart, Gone to Georgia (Washington: National Genealogical Society, Washington 1979), p. 177. This is a favorite source book for genealogists studying people who moved from Virginia to Georgia around the time of the American Revolutionary War.

Uriah's first wife was mistakenly identified by an early researcher as Sarah Stratham, daughter of Love Stratham, and many histories have duplicated this error. In fact, Sarah Stratham married a William Humphreys, who had married first Mildred Statham, sister of Sarah, who died after having given birth to one daughter. This William was born in 1750 in Louisa Co. VA, the son of John Humphries. We don't know whether he is related to the family studied in this pedigree. A study of the William Humphreys family line is in a well-researched book that can be found in the Mormon library in Utah: The Record of a Humphreys Family, Compiled by David M. McDonald [4224315] c/o 405 Bernard Drive, Buffalo Grove, Illinois 60089, 1988. Uriah married first, Sarah Reynolds, and then later, Nancy Burts, as explained below.

As a young man, Uriah served in the French and Indian wars. From Virginia Colonial Militia 1651-1776 (GPS, 1965), p. 56: "Uriah Humphries, soldier in last war in Capt. Posey's Co. of Regulars till properly discharged. Botetourt Co., March, 1780." Uriah and John Humphries were in Captain Joseph Pryor's militia company. While serving, Uriah was promoted from Ensign to the position of Second Lieutenant, and then to Lieutenant. (Information on military record is from John Humphries of Dallas). He asked bounty land in 1780 for this service.

Uriah Humphries bought land in Halifax County NC on January 1, 1763 and January 10, 1763. By 1767, the sheriff of the county had sold Uriah's land in NC. Uriah's elder brother Elijah lived in Halifax for many years and died there.

He also aided the American side with supplies in the American Revolutionary War. Uriah furnished horses for Col. William Christian's Cherokee Indian expedition in 1776 and 1783. He is listed at this time as having 17 horses, 28 cattle, and 10 slaves. He is listed in Anne Waller Reddy's compilation of West Virginia Patriots as a "non-military" patriot of Botetourt Co. He is inscribed in the DAR list of patriots.

On 16 May 1771 Uriah Humphries was on a jury in the case of Solomon Elliot vs. William Thornton. This connection to the Thornton name has made at least one researcher speculate that William Thornton was the father of Uriah's second wife, Nancy. One of his children by Nancy was named Presley Thornton Humphries. However, Nancy's maiden name was most likely Burts (Burks), or as some have maintained, Burts could have been her married name when she first met Uriah. It is possible she was a widow and the daughter of James Akins, a neighbor of Uriah's in Georgia.

Uriah was a leading citizen of Botetourt Co., VA, a constable, keeper of an ordinary (inn), a merchant, and a soldier. He lived in Botetourt Co. close to John Humphries, with whom he had served in Pryor's company. The exact relationship between John and Uriah is not known. They may have been first cousins.

During the period 1771 through 1792 Uriah appeared on almost every page of the Botetourt County Order Book and held a variety of county positions (Surveyor, Overseer of the Road, and Deputy Sheriff). However, the position of Deputy Sheriff appears to have lasted only a short time. On May 10, 1781 he was appointed Deputy Sheriff. In March 1782, when Uriah was to show cause why he should not appear as a witness in the trial of his brother Spencer, who was accused of counterfeiting, Uriah resigned his office as Deputy Sheriff. On May 9, 1782, he was fined ten pounds for not serving process put into his hands and was referred to as the late Deputy Sheriff.

In 1785 he is listed on the tax list for Botetourt Co. VA, as living in Pryor District (name is shown as Humphros). On May 8, 1787, Uriah was cited by the county court for retailing liquors contrary to law and for not keeping the bridge in repair.

Beginning May 16, 1771, Uriah began to buy large quantities of land, some of which he and his wife Sarah sold on August 6, 1782. In Botetourt County VA Deed Book 5, p. 204, Jan 1795, Uriah sold 365 acres on Glad Creek to Anthony Gholson. He brought a suit against Hollingsworth, Johnston & Co. (Augusta Co., Judgments, OS 2, NS1). In another suit, Henderson vs Uriah Humphries (OS 171, NS60), Uriah gave his answer to the suit from his new home in Clarke Co., GA.

Exactly when Uriah's relationship with his second wife Nancy began is unknown, but it seems to have been about 1790, when he moved to Clark Co., GA. The relationship started while he was still married to Sarah Reynolds Humphries. On August 17, 1798, Sarah filed for a divorce from Uriah Humphries, with whom she had seven children. The couple had already split their property, as Sarah was not a woman who could be taken advantage of. One researcher has found that she was a widow with one child when she first married Uriah. Her first husband was a Jones. She later married Joel Chandler and lived out a happy life in St. Clair Co., AL.

Uriah then married Nancy (with whom he had already had at least three children) and had another six children. The Superior Court Minutes of Clarke Co., GA 1801-1808, pages 19 and 43 show Uriah Humphries and Nancy Burks were charged with living in adultery. (Georgia State Archives, Atlanta, GA; microfilm, roll 98/18). No official record of this marriage has been found and some of the children are considered "ill." in the official record. However, in his will he does acknowledge all of them and apparently lived a full and happy life with Nancy. We must remember that common-law marriages were totally acceptable in these frontier areas. (Some researchers think that Nancy may have had her first three daughters by a Mr. Burts and that her maiden name was Akin. This is a point that needs research.)

Uriah owned land in Virginia, West Virginia, Kentucky, Ohio, Tennessee, and Georgia.

Deed Book D, Jackson Co., GA, Pages 31-32:
(Power of Attorney) Feb. 13, 1804, I, Uriah Humphries of Clarke County, GA appoint Abraham Scott of Jackson County my true and lawful attorney to collect and receive all bonds, notes and other accounts ... more especially money collected, in the state of Kentucky, probably in Maddison

County, for two notes, or bonds, given by John Langley to John Davis and endorsed by John Davis to James Kennedy, and endorsed by James Kennedy to me, for the sum of 25 pounds, both dated Mar. 25, 1773. Signed: Uriah Humphries. Witness: Walter Bell, J.P., Thomas Hogg, J.P. Recorded Feb. 13, 1804.

About six years before his death, Uriah started disposing of his Clarke Co., GA, property, much of which was purchased in 1805. On May 7, 1810, Uriah deeded (Book K. p. 14) land to his daughter Polly; on December 12, 1812, he gifted a tract of land (Book G. p. 199) to his daughter Liddy; and a year later he did the same for his daughter Mariah on September 15, 1813 (Book K p. ?).

There were numerous other sales of his land, among which are two to his niece Hannah Croxton (daughter of his brother Elijah Humphries), one on June 6, 1809 (Book G p. 197) and the other on July 24, 1815 (Book K, p. ?).

According to one researcher, Uriah died in Watkinsville, GA. I have not checked out the exact boundaries of his property, but the Oconee river runs through Watkinsville, which is close to Athens, and this may be the place where his home property was located.

In the 1817 tax list for Clark County, Uriah is shown as paying taxes for 2000 acres from the Few Survey in Clarke County, 800 adjoining acres from the Few Survey that falls in Jackson County, 360 acres from the Lane Survey, 372 acres from the Pope & Tidwell Survey, and 950 acres from the Gorhum Survey in Jackson County. This brings his total land holdings in the State of Georgia in 1817 to 4,482 acres. (John Humphries of Dallas found all these land records and drew the totals.)

Uriah drew a will on July 26, 1816 in Clarke County, GA (Will Book A, pp. 83-88). The will names all children by both marriages. It states that the land and slaves of Uriah were to be left to the wife and children of the second marriage, with the children of the first marriage receiving only one shilling each. (His father Joseph, who had also had two families, made a similar stipulation regarding the grown children of his first family. Both may have felt the older children had already had their shares.)

The will was probated soon after his death in February of 1817, and contested by the first family, as Uriah had predicted in the will, in a suit brought by Judy Lane through her husband Simeon Lane. The Superior Court considered the case and a special jury was impaneled to try the issue. The jury found that the Testator was of sound mind at the time of making the will; therefore, the will was valid insofar as personal property (slaves, etc.) was concerned. However, the jury also found that the will was not executed according to the statue of frauds and perjury, and therefore was not valid insofar as the disposition of real estate. So the real estate was to be divided according to the laws on intestacy, with each child from both marriages receiving equal shares.

It is thought that the case was further appealed to the state Supreme Court. However, I have not located the papers from the second appeal.

Thomas Mitchell, whose great-granddaughter was Margaret Mitchell who wrote "Gone with the Wind," was named an executor of Uriah's will. However, he apparently did not serve in that capacity. Paula Mason, researcher from Anniston AL, has found this: Book I-pg. 147 GA will book, Steven Thomas and Edward Paine, of Clark appointed Executers of Last Will and Testament of Uriah Humphries, not convenient to ask for Major Thomas Mitchell to be appointed. May 4, 1818. Recorded, June 15, 1818.

William (2) Humphries were listed. Only Uriah--a younger man than the Virginia soldier was enumerated in Jackson in 1820 but in Gwinnett County were (No. 30) John Humphrey (No. 30), Shadrack (No. 416), and George Humphries (No. 452). Also in 1820, Nancy was in Clarke County; Isaac in Walton County; and others were in Jasper, Oglethorpe, and various other Georgia counties. James and Shadrack were listed in the 1827 Walton County lottery.

982. Stephen Mays 200020-31010-22

Stephen was doubtless related to the Stephen May(s) of a family living along the Cowpasture and subsequently on the Roanoke and Catawba Rivers in Botetourt County, where Stephen May is found in the records from 1775 and during the 1780s served as a deputy sheriff and jailor of Botetourt County and also kept and ordinary at the same period Uriah Humphries was in that business. Also enumerated in 1820 were John of Habersham County; William (No. 503) of Gwinnett County, and others in Warren, Greene, Hancock, Jasper, Lincoln and Pulaski Counties. Benjamin Mays left a will in Jackson County.

989. Enoch Floyd 020001-41210-0

A man of this name was enumerated in Spartanburg District, S. C., in 1790. There appear to have been several Floyd families in Georgia not closely connected. The Floyds in Oglethorpe County were allied by marriage with the Stewarts from Amherst County, Va. In 1820, Jabez, Lewis, Robert and William were enumerated in Madison County; John in Clarke County; and Benjamin, Clement, Elizabeth, John and Richard in Oglethorpe County, among others in the state. John of Clarke County was of the Amherst-Oglethorpe family.

990. Pr. Randolph 100010-10100-0

Also enumerated in Jackson in 1820 was John (No. 1054), who was living in Venable's district in 1827. Enumerated in Gwinnett County 1820 was Charles (No. 31), and others of the family were found in Jasper, Wilkes and other counties.

991. V_l Hicks 000100-10100

Perhaps Val(entine). Also enumerated in 1820 were James (No. 92) and Matthew Hicks (No. 643) of Gwinnett County; Daniel of Clarke County; John (2) and Josiah of Hall County; Wylly Hicks of Habersham County; David Hix of Walton County; and David and William Hix of Elbert County. In 1827, Isaac Hicks, a name found in Oglethorpe in 1820, was living in Habersham County. Nicholas and John Hicks were in the 1805 Jackson lottery list. At least one Hicks family was in Wilkes County during the 1790s and early 1800s; only John was enumerated there in 1820. In the estate papers of one James Hix of Henry County, Va., (Will Book I, p. 221) there is a reference to the orphans of Hix, for whom Alexander Joyce was guardian; mention was made of horses delivered to Benjamin Hix for the "estate and board for Polly Hix, May 9, 1790, Wilkes County, Ga.," but Benjamin is not found in the early Wilkes records. The 1793 will of William Jennings in Wilkes County left a legacy to his daughter Nancy Hicks, and in the settlement of the estate James Jennings signed for John Jennings of Virginia.

Chapter 2 Colonial and Onslow Area Humphreys

By 1710, settlers had begun arriving on the White Oak River, within a few years they had begun setting up homes on the shores of New River in what is now Onslow County. These people came from further north in the state, Virginia, Maryland, and New England. Also considered part of New Hanover County, many early papers were filed in the Craven records. In 1734, the General Assembly created what is now Onslow County.[1]

Already the Humphrey family had gone down into Albemarle County, North Carolina, as indicated in the wills of Richard Humphries, in 1688, and John Humphries, of Pasquotank precinct, in 1708.[2]

In 1748 the county of Lunenburg, Virginia, was formed from Brunswick County. On the tax lists for that year, but not for the years following, appear the names, John, William, Thomas, and Charles Humphreys and the names, William Wood, John Williams, Daniel Humphreys, Richard Ward, John Ambrose, John Ellis, and other names often seen early in Onslow County, North Carolina.[3]

Defense of the Onslow area being a concern, the community mounted a militia. In Captain John Shackelford's company, 1754, were Thomas Johnston, Lieutenant; James Howard, Ensign; William Shackelford, Clerk; Jesse Williams, John Humphrey, and Lott Williams, Corporals. Among those listed in the company were Joseph Mumford, Jacob Humphrey, William Humphrey, William Williams, Stephen Williams, Benjamin Johnston, John Johnston, William Ambrose, and John Ambrose.[4]

William Humphrey and Furnifold Green were the witnesses on a deed for Thomas Graves and James Reed on June 17, 1760, as recorded in Book 2, page 92, at the courthouse in New Bern, Craven County, North Carolina.[5]

One William Humphrey died in Craven County, North Carolina, in 1767. Nathaniel Scarborough, next of kin, made the inventory of this estate.[6]

In the Craven County records, October 15, 1752, one Joseph Humphrey left "cousin Sarah Roberts of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania" a legacy; he also left legacies to his nephew, Joseph Humphrey, the son of John Humphrey, and to his friend, Evan Ellis. One Joseph Humphries was the executor in Pasquotank County in 1740 of the estate of Christopher Humphrey, brother of John and William.[7]

Two related Humphrey families, it appears, came from Virginia to Onslow County, North Carolina -- one through Pasquotank and Craven Counties to Onslow and the other through Halifax and Bertie Counties into Onslow.[8]

Joseph Humphrey of Onslow made affidavit that he was born in Halifax County, North Carolina, on January 16, 1750. This Joseph Humphrey was a Revolutionary soldier as shown on a record in the Pension Bureau in Washington, D. C. [9]

It is helpful at this point to learn that of the Humphrey family early in Onslow County, North Carolina, Thomas Humphrey had a son, Francis; Eustres Humphrey had sons, Lewis and David; Jacob Humphrey had a son, Robert; and William Humphrey had sons, William Humphrey, junior, Jacob Humphrey, and Daniel Humphrey; and William's wife, Sarah, deeded land to her son, Jacob Wood, evidently the child of a former marriage.[10]

In Chowan County, North Carolina, in 1789, the will of David Humphrey named sons: William, John, and Richard. Listed in Captain Thomas Graves' company in the Craven County Militia for 1751 were: William, John, and Richard Humphrey.[11]

The United States Census for 1790, Onslow County, North Carolina, lists as heads of families: Eustace, Eustace Jr., William Umphrey, Mary (the widow of Thomas), Josiah, Jacob, Francis, and David Humphrey. The census for 1800 lists as heads of families: John Umphrey, David, Jacob, Joseph, and Daniel Humphrey.[12]

Although the Humphrey name appears in numerous Craven County records prior to 1790, it appears the majority of the Humphrey families resided in Onslow County. Many of the early marriage records reveal relationships between Onslow and Craven residents.[13]

A Daniel Humphrey purchased land in 1810 and 1817 in Craven County.[14] In 1820 the sheriff transferred land from Daniel Humphrey to one Abraham Taylor of Craven County. A younger aged Daniel appears again in the 1830 and 1840 Craven census. After 1840 there are no Daniel's in Craven County.

In the 1840 Craven census, Lott W. Humphrey resided in Craven County near Hiram Humphrey.[15] Lott Williams was the son of William Humphrey of Onslow County. Sometime after 1840 Lott returned to Onslow County. This migration, to and from Onslow County may have been common in the period. Several Onslow Humphrey family names, Daniel, Lott, and Lewis, appear in Craven and Onslow between 1810 – 1840.

The Jefferson County Marriage Book published by "Hunting For Bears" shows that Abbie Humphreys married I.T. Trevilion on Nov 2, 1880. I believe this is a misprint and should be J. T. Trevilion. Jefferson County Cemetery Book, Vol. I, page 121, Trevillion Cemetery, lists John Thomas Trevillion, born 13 Apr 1858 and died 28 Dec 1935, (78 years, 8 months, 15 days). On next line, Fransonia Abigal Trevillion, born 11 Nov 1857 and died 7 June 1936. Another reference that I have shows that John Thomas was the son of Philip B. Trevillion and Matilda Rogillio. I hope that some of this information will help you in your research. Ruth Nevels,

Richard Curtis, Jr.

First Baptist Minister in Mississippi

Richard Curtis, Jr. was born in Dinwiddie County, Virginia, on May 20, 1756; son of Richard Curtis, Sr. and Phoebe, widow of William Jones.

Richard Curtis, Sr., and family (there was a stepson, John Jones, who married Anna, daughter of William Brown on 28 Jun 1768, and five sons and three daughters) resided in 1775 on the Great Pee Dee River, near the mouth of Black River, South Carolina, but came to the Natchez Country in 1780, where Richard Curtis, Sr. died near Cole's Creek on November 10, 1784.

Accompanying Richard Curtis, Sr. to the Natchez Country were 3 sons, a stepson (John Jones) and 2 sons-in-law, three of whom later became pioneer citizens of Amite County: (1) son Richard, Jr. and his wife Pattie; (2) Son William Curtis and his wife; (3) and daughter Hannah Curtis, wife of John Courtney.

Richard Curtis, Jr., who had been licensed as a Baptist Minister in South Carolina in 1778, began to preach throughout the Natchez Country but especially in the Salem Community near Cole's Creek. In 1795 he ran afoul of the Spanish authorities for preaching and officiating at the marriage of his niece, Phoebe Jones to David Greenleaf, and he was forced to return to South Carolina, where he was ordained in 1796. He returned to the Mississippi Territory in 1798, and as Moderator helped to organize in due and ancient form Salem Baptist Church on Cole's Creek in Jefferson County as a regular Baptist Church, the first in Mississippi.

On May 9, 1806, Rev. Richard Curtis, Jr., assisted by Rev. Thomas Mercer, Rev. James Courtney from South Carolina, Rev. Isaac Jackson from New Providence Baptist Church and Rev. Jonathan Curtis from Salem Baptist Church, constituted the Ebenezer Baptist Church on Beaver Creek in Amite County and was the first Pastor.

Among the charter members were Mary Curtis, and his brother-in-law, John Courtney, both with letters from Salem Baptist Church on Cole's Creek.

Mary Curtis (wife or daughter?) dismissed by letter on October 1, 1808.

Rev. Richard Curtis, Jr., was Pastor of New Hope Baptist Church in Adams County, Mississippi (organized in 1800 and was the second Baptist Church in Mississippi), and a messenger to the Mississippi Baptist Association in 1808-1811.

Rev. Richard Curtis, Jr., was disallowed a claim of settlement on Beaver Creek in Amite County in 1802, because the land was not improved, but was granted 320 acres there in 1808. He is listed as a citizen of Amite County in the Census of 1805 and 1810. (A relative also named Richard Curtis is listed in the Census of 1810 and 1816.)

Rev. Richard Curtis, Jr. died of cancer on Beaver Creek in Amite County, Mississippi on October 28, 1811, and is buried in the yard of what was years later the residence of Dr. W. b. Kinnabrew, about 1/2 mile from Ebenezer Baptist Church, and there is a marble obelisk in the churchyard.

John Courtney, brother-in-law of Richard Curtis, Sr., was appointed delegate from Ebenezer Baptist Church of Amite County, Mississippi on January 31, 1807, to attend the organization meeting of the Mississippi Baptist Association at Cole's Creek Church.

He settled with his wife, Hannah Curtis, and 7 children on 666 acres on Beaver Creek, Section 30, Township 1 north, range 3 east in November, 1802.

Brother Benjamin Curtis, brother-in-law John Stampley, a Baptist Minister, and half brother John Jones and their families settled in the Cole's Creek area of the Mississippi Territory.

(The author of the above, who remains anonymous, inserted following note. jtd)

The second Baptist Church organized in Mississippi was located at the confluence of Big Bayou Pierre and Little Bayou Pierre in Claiborne County, Mississippi. This area is not in the city limits of Port Gibson, Mississippi.

The second Baptist Church in Mississippi was organized in 1798, in Claiborne County, Mississippi and was know as Bayou Pierre Baptist Church. It ceased to exist in 1825

My Dear Miss Holman:

It was a very happy day for me when your letter arrived. And I want to say thank you from the bottom of my heart. You see Rev. A.G.Lane was the brother of my Uriah H. Lane. Uriah was born in 1800 in Ga. and Alfred 1801 in Ga. That gave me the proof I needed to prove Simon was their father. Simon was the son of Jesse and Winnifred Aycock Lane. In 1850 Rev. A.G.Lane was living in Walker Co. Ala.and his occupation was listed as a millmaker,however his wife was Miriah and the list of children was the same as in your copy. S.B.Lane (Simon) was 1 year old at the time. Simon Lane (A.G.'s father was living in Walker Co. Ala. with his son John. He had one son by the name of Dela. Uriah,Alfred,John and Dela were brothers. Simon Lane married Judith Humphries. She was the daughter of Uriah Humphries and his first wife Sarah Statham. I am sure you are not interested in my line of the Lane family but you know what a thill a person feels when at last you have positive proof of the missing link. I didn't see how their father could be anyone but Simon,son of Jesse but then there is always a chance what you believe could be wrong.

Incidentally we are planning a trip back to Walker Co. when your letter arrived. If I can ever be of service to you in any way please let me know and I will do what I can to help you.

Yours sincerely,

Thelma Lane Nelson
